From: Commission Secretary/CEOTo: County Election Managers
Constituency Election CoordinatorsRef: IEBC/CEO/1/6/09/2017Date: 6th September 2017RE: RECRUITMENT OF ELECTION OFFICIALS FOR THE FRESH PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

The Supreme Court of the Republic of Kenya nullified the Presidential Election held on Tuesday, 8 August, 2017 and ordered the Commission to conduct a fresh election within a period of 60 days as provided for under Section 88(3) of the Constitution.

Consequently, the Commission has scheduled the Election for Tuesday, 17th October, 2017. On this date, learning will be on in educational institutions which may have significant impact on recruitment of election officials as quite a number were teachers or college students.

You are required to refer to the database of election officials engaged for the 8th August, 2017 General Elections and engage officials whose performance was satisfactory. In addition, confirm their availability for the fresh election. Where there are gaps, you are advised to select qualified applicants from the database of applicants.

The engagement of the officials will be as below:-

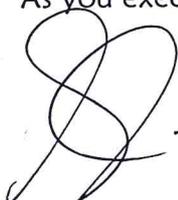

S/No.	Capacity	Rate per Day	Number of Days
1	*Deputy Returning officer	3000	25
2	Presiding officer (PO)	2000	9
3	Deputy Presiding Officer(DPO)	1800	9
4	Clerks	1000	5
5	Logistics Officer	1500	15
6	Constituency ICT Clerks	1500	15
7	SETs (POs)	2000	13

*The DRO refers to the temporary 32 recruited where the CAAs were moved to act as CECs (Annex Attached)

The data of the successful election poll officials should be compiled per County and sent through the CEM to Database Management Officer, George Murigi at gmurigi@iebc.or.ke to enable us share with the Political parties in the format below on or before Friday 15th September 2017;

LIST OF POLL OFFICIALS – COUNTY NAME
